

Rewards Spending Guidelines

Suggested guidelines for using or spending rewards.

- The child may purchase any item of their choice except for lollies, sweets, food, drinks, or items contrary to general house values, and may use it to -
- donate to a charitable organisation of the child's choice
- give to another person of the child's choice
- use for their own enjoyment and

- if the purchase is a soft toy, then it may only be purchased to replace a similar sized soft toy that the child has lost, given to another person, given to a charitable organisation or otherwise disposed of
